A Bill to Address Climate Change

BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED THAT:

SECTION 1. The United States shall:

A. Institute an initial carbon tax at $40/ton; every year, this carbon tax would increase in regular intervals of $4/ton for the first 5 years and then $10/ton until it hits $100/ton.

B. According to the schedule defined in Section 1A, allocate 70% of the revenue gained from the carbon tax as a monthly dividend to Americans for the purpose of assisting with the transition to renewable energy sources.

C. Redistribute the remaining revenue from the carbon tax as renewable energy subsidies to companies, while eliminating all current fossil fuel subsidies.

D. Charge a 5% fee on the value of imports from countries that don't impose a similar carbon tax as outlined above.

SECTION 2.

A. "Dividend" shall be defined as a fixed monthly payment given to each American individual over the age of 18.

B. "Renewable energy" shall be defined as a source of energy that has lower carbon emissions compared to conventional sources such as fossil fuels.

SECTION 3. The Department of Energy and the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) will oversee implementation of this legislation.

SECTION 4. This legislation will go into effect on January 1, 2021.

SECTION 5. All laws in conflict with this legislation are hereby declared null and void.
