A Bill to Reform Policing Practices

1 BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED THAT:

2 SECTION 1. Police systems throughout the United States require funding for 3 additional training. U.S. police systems will be provided 100 billion dollars
4 of funding. These funds will come directly from the annual Department
5 of Defense budget. The money shall be allocated to provide increased 6 best practices training for the de-escalation of conflict with civilians.

7 SECTION 2. Police systems shall be defined as any authorized government agency
8 responsible for law enforcement. Such agencies include federal, state, 9 county, and municipal police departments.

10 SECTION 3. The Department of Homeland Security will be responsible for dividing the 11 funding across all state, city, and county police
12 departments/organizations equally, as well as the oversight of best 13 practice training implementation.

14 SECTION 4. This legislation shall go into effect on January 1, 2023.

15 SECTION 5. All laws in conflict with this legislation are hereby declared null and void.

A Resolution to Defend Democracy in Taiwan

- 1 WHEREAS, The people of Taiwan enjoy a democratic and prosperous state that is 2 free of the free from the tyranny of the government of mainland China;
3 and
4 WHEREAS, The government of mainland China is amassing weapons and systems to 5 overwhelm Taiwan and may be ready to attack within the next six years;
6 and
7 WHEREAS, The loss of Taiwan as an ally would be a human rights disaster and allow 8 China to dominate two thirds of world trade that passes near the seas
9 near Taiwan; and
10 WHEREAS, The current policy of the United States has been one of strategic 11 ambiguity toward Taiwan; now, therefore, be it
12 RESOLVED, That the Congress here assembled authorize the president to take all 13 necessary military and diplomatic steps to protect Taiwan and deter
14 Chinese aggression towards Taiwan; and, be it
15 FURTHER RESOLVED, That United States shall support Taiwan with military aid, sales,
16 and training to prepare the Taiwan military for threats from mainland
17 China.

A Resolution to Put a Fork in the (Belt and) Road

BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED THAT:

- 1 WHEREAS, The People’s Republic of China (PRC) has devised a global infrastructure
2 development strategy, commonly known as the Belt and Road Initiative, in 3 which PRC is the center of the system, and
- 4 WHEREAS, The Belt and Road Initiative has claimed to mobilize countries towards 5 economic success by funding infrastructure projects; however, it is being 6 used to spread the PRC’s agenda and interests, and
- 7 WHEREAS, The Belt and Road Initiative has taken advantage of the countries’ current 8 economic state to hold these projects as leverage for diplomatic power
- 9 RESOLVED, That the Congress here assembled make the following recommendation,
10 that countries hereby withdraw and cease from participating in the Belt
11 and Road Initiative
- 12 FURTHER RESOLVED, That if countries do not comply with this resolution, the United 13 States Congress shall levy an additional 10% tariff on all exports to the 14 United States on those countries.
