A Resolution to Branch Out of Africa

WHEREAS, Illegal logging to supply the Chinese furniture industry is decimating the rosewood tree forests of Central Africa; and

WHEREAS, The logging of rosewood trees has occurred for over two decades as a result of government corruption and a lack of regulation within the African continent; and

WHEREAS, The rosewood tree is a critically endangered species, and has therefore been universally protected by the Convention of International Trade in Endangered Species (CITES) since 2013; and

WHEREAS, China has continued to violate all environmental regulations and shows no concern for the destruction of African habitats, resources, or livelihoods. Chinese deforestation and exploitation of local African workers at the expense of their basic health will no longer go unseen by the United States government; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Congress here assembled will end all imports of rosewood-based goods into the United States, and demands that China cease all logging activity in Africa; and, be it

FURTHER RESOLVED, That the United States will levy a 10% tariff on all furniture imported from China, if they do not comply by December 31, 2022; and, be it

FURTHER RESOLVED, That the United States will join the European Union as another leading donor of the CITES Tree Species Programme (CTSP) and pledge 7 million USD to the conservation of all endangered tree species.

Introduced to the committee on Foreign Affairs by Nithya Mahesh and Ananya Krishnan.

A Resolution to Revive African Agriculture

- 1 WHEREAS, Over a quarter of Africa's total population is currently facing severe food 2 insecurity, specifically concentrated in the Horn of Africa, despite 3 donations totaling several billions of dollars in foreign food aid; and 4 WHEREAS, Ineffective and unsustainable donation practices have contributed to 5 both reliance on foreign aid and widespread food inaccessibility; and 6 WHEREAS, Prolonged drought within the Horn of Africa, ongoing warfare in Ukraine, 7 and rising grain prices across the globe have exacerbated this problem;
8 now, therefore, be it
9 RESOLVED, By the Congress here assembled to provide $500 million in agricultural 10 aid to NGOs such as SOS Sahel, the Nippon Foundation, and Farm Africa 11 to be used in support of grassroots initiatives to farm indigenous crops, 12 which include but are not limited to fonio, teff, millet, and cassava; and 13 be it
14 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Congress hereby recommends that fellow G7 countries 15 pledge to create a reserve fund for global food security totaling at least 16 $100 million to disperse when the United Nations declares that the third 17 state of the Integrated Food Security Classification has been reached.

A Resolution to Aid Afghanistan

- WHEREAS, Afghanistan has been historically reliant on aid from the United States and its allies over the past two decades; and
- WHEREAS, the United States recently removed all military deployments within the nation, resulting in Taliban advances much faster than expected, eventually concluding with the surrender of Kabul and Afghanistan as a whole; and
- WHEREAS, the expedited nature of such surrender has since led to rash decisions by many nations such as the United States; and
- WHEREAS, such rash decisions included the lifting or removal of aid to the nation of Afghanistan dedicated towards humanitarian causes and economic stability; and
- WHEREAS, Afghanistan remains reliant on such aid that is no longer available to the country and its citizens; now, therefore, be it,
- RESOLVED, that the United States government provide Afghanistan with $100 million in humanitarian aid through USAID; and, be it
- FURTHER RESOLVED, that USAID conducts a review in 2025 on the expenditures of aforementioned aid, which will decide the future of aid in Afghanistan based on the integrity of such expenditures; and, be it
- FURTHER RESOLVED, that the United States encourage our allies through the North Atlantic Trade Organization (NATO) and the United Nations (UN) to provide additional aid to Afghanistan.
