A Resolution to Outlaw LAWS

WHEREAS, Lethal Autonomous Weapons Systems (LAWS) are being developed by multiple countries throughout the world, and these weapons may become operational in a matter of months; and

WHEREAS, Lethal Autonomous Weapons Systems (LAWS) violate the laws of war because these weapons cannot distinguish between combatants and civilians; and

WHEREAS, Lethal Autonomous Weapons Systems (LAWS) could be produced cheaply in large numbers, which would be a nightmare for national security since non-state actors might possess the capability to challenge the most powerful countries; and

WHEREAS, The United States has opposed efforts to ban Lethal Autonomous Weapons Systems (LAWS); now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Congress here assembled urges the nations of the world to ban the development of Lethal Autonomous Weapons Systems (LAWS) and establish third party verification processes; and, be it

FURTHER RESOLVED, That violators of the above treaty will be subject to embargoes from all the other signatories, and the use of Lethal Autonomous Weapons Systems (LAWS) shall be considered a crime against humanity and punishable by the International Criminal Court.

A Resolution to Aid Arunachal

WHEREAS, China is increasing its aggressive investments and interventions to position itself as the dominant Asian superpower;

WHEREAS, India has refused investments such as the Belt and Road Initiative from China, and as a result China has started the construction of a large dam on the Brahmaputra river, which would block the flow of water to the Arunachal Pradesh and Assam regions of India;

WHEREAS, China is forcing Chinese supremacy in the region and expanding its sphere of influence to counter American dominance; now, therefore, be it,

RESOLVED, The U.S. shall provide $200 billion from the Department of Defense over the course of a ten year period to support self-sustainable infrastructure in India.

FURTHER RESOLVED, Due to mistreatment of ethnic and religious minorities in India, the U.S shall only provide this funding if the Indian government ends this abuse,

FURTHER RESOLVED, India shall allow the United States to monitor regions to ensure that the mistreatment of ethnic minorities is ended.

A Resolution to Relinquish the Revolution

- 1 WHEREAS, The United States government has continually given financial backing to 2 global insurgencies and revolutions; and
- 3 WHEREAS, These groups have used American financial support in their violent 4 usurpation of sitting governments; and
- 5 WHEREAS, The funding of insurgent groups has significantly deteriorated American 6 global image; and
- 7 WHEREAS, The proliferated military capabilities of these insurgencies have caused 8 the deaths of millions of innocent civilians; now, therefore, be it
- 9 RESOLVED, That the United States government shall cease payments of funds and 10 arms to all non-state actors engaging in insurgencies. "Insurgency" shall 11 be defined as an active armed or unarmed revolt or uprising against the 12 sitting government of a country; and, be it
- 13 FURTHER RESOLVED, That if any governmental agency is found to continue supporting 14 global insurgencies, their funding will be cut by 25% for each violation.

A Resolution to Amend the Constitution to Make America Democratic Again

RESOLVED, By two-thirds of the Congress here assembled, that the following article is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states within seven years from the date of its submission by the Congress:

ARTICLE --

SECTION 1:

- A. The United States Senate shall hereby be disbanded.
- B. All responsibilities currently exclusively held by the United States Senate shall be delegated to the United States House of Representatives, including (but not limited to) confirming presidential appointments and ratifying treaties.
- C. All senators currently holding office shall become representatives of their respective states in the United States House of Representatives.
- D. All former senators shall finish the remainder of their 6-year term. Upon resolution of their current term, they shall adopt a 2-year term.
- E. All former senator positions added to the House of Representatives shall remain indefinitely, thus increasing the number of representatives to 535.
- F. This legislation is applicable to only the United States Senate. It is not applicable to any State Senate.

SECTION 2:

The Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.
