A Resolution to Expand NATO for More Security

201

1. WHEREAS, China, Russia, and North Korea all pose a significant threat to East
2. Asian countries all of which lack a powerful alliance system. Therefore
3. many of these countries would benefit from having powerful allies so they don't
4. live in a constant threat of war; and
5. WHEREAS, many east Asian countries would be eager to join NATO, but they are
6. unable to do so because they aren't located in Europe despite the fact that they
7. meet the other requirements; and
8. WHEREAS, the U.S and NATO need more allies to combat Russia, China, and
9. North Korea due to their rise in power and their threat to democracy; now,
10. therefore, be it
11. RESOLVED, The Congress here assembled will encourage NATO members to 12. consider Asian countries as possible signatories to the NATO Treaty; and, be it
13. FURTHER RESOLVED, if NATO fails to take steps to accept and pass this
14. resolution, the U.S shall reorient its defense spending and defense posture to 15. prioritize east Asian countries.

A Resolution to Fuel the Future of Freedom

- 1 WHEREAS, The Indonesian Army (TNI) has been engaged in a conflict with the West
2 Papua National Liberation Army (TPNPB) and has failed to establish a political process 3 between them and the Papuan people; and 4 WHEREAS, The failure of Indonesia to initiate peace talks has led to the expansion and 5 intensification of the conflict along with a growing distrust of the people; and 6 WHEREAS, The Indonesian Army has brutally cracked down on protests and on those 7 fighting for independence, with hundreds of thousands citizens being caught in the 8 crossfire; and, be it
9 RESOLVED, The United States will allocate $250 million worth of humanitarian aid to the 10 Papua New Guinea Red Cross Society for the purpose of helping the people of the Papua 11 region; and, be it
12 FURTHER RESOLVED, That if the Indonesian government and the TPNPB do not call a 13 ceasefire to hold peace talks and if Indonesia does not repeal the TPNPB's status as a 14 terrorist organization by June 1, 2024, the United States shall cease all weapons exports 15 to Indonesia, and will push members of the United Nations to do so as well.
