Legislation Packet

The 28th Amendment to the Constitution

1 BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED THAT:

2 RESOLVED, By two-thirds of the Congress here assembled, that the following article is
 3 proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States,
 4 which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution
 5 when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states
 6 within seven years from the date of its submission by the Congress:

ARTICLE 1

7 SECTION 1. The President shall be prohibited from nominating a Supreme Court
 8 Justice under the specific provisions outlined in Section 2. The Senate
 9 shall be required to confirm a nominee with a two-thirds majority vote.

10 SECTION 2. The provisions for when a sitting President shall be prohibited from 11 nominating when a vacancy in the Supreme Court occurs are as followed:

12 A) If in a presidential election year at least one presidential candidate
 13 has secured the delegates needed to soon be the official nominee
 14 for their respective political party.

15 B) If the winner of the General Election is not the incumbent, the 16 President that holds office on January 20th at noon of the next
 17 year shall be free to nominate a Justice.

18 C) If the winner of the General Election is the incumbent, the 19 incumbent may immediately nominate a Justice.

20 SECTION 3. The Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate
 21 legislation.

A Bill to Reform Campaign Contributions Through a Soft Cap

1 BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED THAT:

2 SECTION 1. Given the vast inequality present in the amounts of campaign
3 contributions received by major political parties, it shall be required
4 that there be instated a soft cap of $1 billion in campaign
5 contributions for all political parties.

6 SECTION 2. A. A campaign contribution is anything of value given, loaned or 7 advanced to influence a federal election.

8 B. A soft cap results in all contributions going to the intended
9 political party up to that cap amount, but upon exceeding the cap
10 amount, all contributions thereafter will go 60% to the intended
11 political party, and 40% to a multitude of political parties, whose 12 distribution will be based upon primary results.

13 SECTION 3. The Federal Election Commission will oversee the enforcement of 14 this bill.

15 SECTION 4. This bill will go into effect on January 1st, 2022.

16 SECTION 5. All laws in conflict with this legislation are hereby declared null and 17 void.
