A Resolution to Go Bananas

- WHEREAS, The United States is the world's largest importer of bananas with the most prominent exporters being Latin American countries, and
- WHEREAS, The companies that produce these bananas in these countries neglect to provide safe working conditions and a fair salary, and
- WHEREAS, These exporters dominate the global banana market with exceptionally low prices due to their unethically achieved low cost of labor, and
- WHEREAS, The global market consists of a multitude of other sources of bananas that are produced by more ethical means, and
- WHEREAS, These ethical sources are being stifled by the sheer productivity of their less ethical counterparts; now, therefore, be it
- RESOLVED, That the Congress here assembled levy a 50% tariff on all banana imports from Ecuador, Colombia, Guatemala, Costa Rica, and Honduras; and, be it
- FURTHER RESOLVED, the United States shall remove the aforementioned tariff from any of the given countries whose banana exports are composed of at least 75% Fair Trade Certified goods by January 1st, 2027. For any of the given countries that do not meet this requirement, the tariff shall remain, and the United States shall revoke all foreign aid.

Respectfully submitted to Congressional Debate

A Resolution to Uphold Justice Around the World

- 1 WHEREAS, The United States has been a global leader in the field of international 2 criminal justice for atrocity crimes since the Nuremberg Trials; and
- 3 WHEREAS, The United States has demonstrated its commitment to accountability by 4 tangibly supporting numerous domestic, international, and hybrid courts 5 for atrocity crimes, including the International Criminal Tribunal for the 6 Former Yugoslavia, the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda,; and
- 7 WHEREAS, The International Criminal Court is an important institution in the global 8 fight against impunity for war crimes, crimes against humanity, and 9 genocide; now, therefore be it
- 10 RESOLVED, That the United States becomes a full member of the International 11 Criminal Court
- 12 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the United States should use its voice, vote, and influence in 13 bilateral and multilateral relationships and institutions to encourage 14 foreign countries that are not party to the International Criminal Court to 15 join the International Criminal Court.
