A Resolution to Save the Struggling Sudanese

- 1   WHEREAS,   The Sudanese army and the paramilitary Rapid Support Forces (RSF) have 2                   been engaging in a bloodthirsty war for control of Sudan; and
- 3   WHEREAS,   The power struggle has led to immense political and civil unrest in Sudan 4                   and has eradicated any prospect of a democratic government under the 5                   current leadership; and
- 6   WHEREAS,   The conflict has resulted in over 2,000 casualties, displaced approximately 7                   2.2 million Sudanese from their residences, caused thousands of injuries, 8                   and has resulted in a widespread occurrence of violence and sexual 9                   assaults committed by the two warring factions; now, therefore, be it
- 10 RESOLVED,   That the Congress here assembled will provide $300 million USD worth of 11                   humanitarian assistance, such as food and medical supplies, to 12                   humanitarian groups in Sudan such as the Sudanese Red Crescent Society
13                   and the UN Sudan Humanitarian Fund; and, be it
- 14 FURTHER RESOLVED, That if the Sudanese army and the RSF do not call a ceasefire to hold 15                   peace talks by January 1, 2024, the United States will employ the Global 16                   Magnitsky Human Rights Accountability Act on the two factions, imposing a range of sanctions, including asset freezes and travel bans, on those deemed responsible for the gross human rights violations occurring in Sudan.

Respectfully submitted to the Committee on Foreign Affairs by Sahana Harini Raja.

A Resolution to Trade Freely with Asian Democracies

- 1 WHEREAS, President Trump withdrew from the Trans-Pacific Partnership; and
- 2 WHEREAS, Such a withdrawal was a mistake for both the economy of the United
- 3 States and its global influence, especially concerning the rise of China;
- 4 and
- 5 WHEREAS, The Comprehensive and Progressive Agreement for Trans-Pacific
- 6 Partnership (CPTPP) has successfully brought down tariffs among the
- 7 participants and established high-standard, market-based rules in areas
- 8 ranging from intellectual property protection to state-owned enterprises;
- 9 and
- 10 WHEREAS, Asian countries view trade as a foreign policy priority and will continue to
- 11 search for ways to expand trade whether or not Washington decides to
- 12 participate, and President Biden has declared that countering China is
- 13 one of his top foreign policy priorities; now, therefore, be it
- 14 RESOLVED, That the Congress here assembled urge the United States to join the
- 15 Comprehensive and Progressive Agreement for Trans-Pacific Partnership
- 16 (CPTPP).
